Learn about Lee's life as an officer in both the United States Army before the Civil War, for the Confederates in the Civil War, Virginia governor and as a U. S. diplomat and U.S. Army officer after the war. Local historians Don Hakenson and Carl Sell will discuss Lee's military service and his early years in Franconia. Enjoy FREE birthday cake (while it lasts) as you listen.

Also on the program will be a discussion by Nathaniel Lee about his new book on the RF&P Railroad's early days in Franconia, including information about the various stops for passengers.

The program also will include some of the Museum's collection of artifacts and displays. All seven of the Museum's Franconia Remembers book series and ball caps will be sold for only $10 each. There will be a wide selection of used books available for only $1 for hard covers or 50 cents for paperback. Donate your used books for sale to benefit the Museum.

Lunch will be available, including hamburgers, cheeseburgers, hot dogs, chips and drinks at reasonable prices. A raffle will include numerous prizes. All proceeds from the lunch items and the raffle will benefit the Museum.
