

MUSEUM TO PARTICIPATE IN TWO-DAY EVENT

CELEBRATING NALLS PRODUCE 50TH ANIVERSARY

The Franconia Museum will be on hand for a two-day community block party event Saturday September 10th and Sunday September 11th at Nalls Produce, 7310 Beulah Street in Franconia. Hours are 10-6 on Saturday and 10-5 on Sunday. Nalls is celebrating the 50th anniversary of its start on a table at the side of the road in 1961. Various vendors and organizations will join the Museum at the event. In addition to Nalls usual fare of excellent produce, plants, jellies and household items, there will be numerous other items for sale as well as prizes for those who attend. Food and entertainment will be available. Members of the Franconia Museum Board of Directors will be on hand to talk about the history of the area. All six volumes of the Museum's outstanding series called Franconia Remembers will be on sale as well as tote bags, caps, thank you cards, etc. Brochures featuring a map of important Franconia historic sites will be given away. Museum Board member Don Hakenson will be selling signed copies of his popular book about the area in the Civil War called "This Forgotten Land" as well as his most recent book "Confederates Buried in Alexandria".

Plan to join the Museum at Nalls Produce on September 10th and 11th
