

Shawnee Historical Society

Meeting Minutes

April 17, 2012

Shawnee Tea Room

Present were Barbara and Larry Behl, Vincent and Carolyn Tolpo, Rhonda Dusatko, Amy Unger, Art Hall, Betty Coulthard, Frank Pemberton.

Meeting was called to order by Barbara opening with the pledge of allegiance.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

OLD BUSINESS

Betty contacted the cemetery board and was told that only relatives of the interred may bury ashes in the cemetery. Otherwise, ashes may be scattered on the grounds. Study is continuing on the original fencing and the plans for a retaining wall.

Shawnee History Day will not need a permit since less than 75 are expected to attend. Jenny will make a poster to help promote the Day. Lynn Hayden will present a short program about Gibbs Homestead on Shawnee History Day. Rhonda Dusatko will present her program about Charlie Tyler.

May 12th is the Santa Maria walking tour from 10 am to 4 pm.

Archivist Rhonda Dusatko requests small photos of the current SHS board in front of homes.

NEW BUSINESS

Amy Unger said forms are available for applications by local structures for individual historic status. Amy talked about the local participation in the National Trust program called "This Place Matters" photography contest. May 31st is the deadline. Glen Isle repair plans are going through permitting and is making progress. There is now a smart phone app for the Fairplay and South Park City walking tours. Shawnee's walking tour could be a part of this someday.

Art Hall reports that PCHS treasurer John Rankin's term has ended and a new treasurer will be elected in July.

Next meeting on May 15th will be a working meeting.
